Friday 18th December 2015

Dear Parents and Carers,

The children and staff have enjoyed some wonderful end of term and Christmas activities at school including a pantomime, Christmas lunch with crackers, parties with Father Christmas and Year five's fantastic Nativity performance. The Christmas service at the church on Wednesday was very special because the children in reception, Year one and Year two performed their Nativity and sang with such enthusiasm. Well done to Helin and Noelia in Year six for playing the violin and to the children in Year six who made the beautiful artwork which hangs in the church. It was also lovely that so many parents came to the service.

Thank you to Mother Bernadette for the gift of £150 from the church to the school, which is to say 'thank you' for the artwork. The head boy and head girl have the fun task of deciding what to spend it on for the school.

We say 'goodbye' sadly, to Miss Taiwo and Ms Begum who are leaving the school at the end of term. We shall miss them and wish them good luck in their next job. We thank them for their dedication to the children and their families at SPSL. Have a peaceful and enjoyable holiday and a very Happy Christmas.

Best wishes

Nicola Horton
