Love God, love yourself, love one another

Dear Parents and Carers,

As you know we have been talking with the children this week and last week about what bullying is and how to deal with bullying if it happens to you or your friend. The winners of the anti-bullying poster competition will be announced in assembly next Wednesday. Today Year 4 sang a song with great gusto all about anti-bullying, they also shared their learning about the story of Romeo and Juliet and about roman numerals amongst other clever things. Well done Year 4!

Lots of us wore odd socks on Tuesday to celebrate all of us being different but also being equal. We had fun in assembly showing off our odd socks.

Year 1 to Year 6 classes went to the Science Museum last week. They saw the Wonder Lab and a science show and had the best science learning time ever. A big thank you to Ms Krebbers for organising these fantastic trips. Did you know entry to the Science Museum is free? This could be a great visit for you and your family during the holidays. The Science Museum's address is Exhibition Road, Kensington, London, SW7 2DD.

Best wishes
Nicola Horton
