Thursday 26th May 2016

Dear Parents and Carers,

This has been an exciting half term and not just because we have been graded Good in the Ofsted inspection. The children have enjoyed visits to different parks, museums, and the theatre. We have a new lining up award each half term, which this time was won by Year 1 and Year 3 and I have given out lots of book tokens as a reward for collecting all 6 values badges. Year 6 worked hard in their SATs and so have Year 2, we are very proud of them. Next half term looks as though it is going to be exciting too, with more trips and our celebrations for the Queen's 90th birthday.

Thank you to the parents who attended the Read Write Inc phonics sessions this morning. We will have one of these each half term and hope that more parents will come.

Have a good half term holiday.

Best wishes

Nicola Horton

He shared with us how he first got into writing and what sorts of things have inspired his stories. We also got to hear a sneak preview of his new book 'Master in Disguise' as well as buying a copy of one of the books from his series, 'The Hundred-Mile-An-Hour-Dog' and getting these signed!

There are many activities for children in Tower Hamlets during the holidays. Please contact the school office for further information or visit the Tower Hamlets website.
