Love God, love yourself, love one another

Dear Parents and Carers,

The whole school enjoyed an amazing Fitness Challenge event organised by Year 5 in the playground on Tuesday. It was such success and the sun was shining too! Year 5 planned the event themselves which included 3 fitness activities, a waiting area for the next class and refreshments. The children in Year 5 were perfect leaders, encouraging teams to do their best, showing children where to go and what to do and all the time being polite and friendly to everyone. Well done Year 5!

Ramadan Kareem to all our families who will be starting to fast during the month of Ramadan, which starts tomorrow. We are closed for Eid on Monday 26th June and on Tuesday 27th June we will celebrate Eid with parties at school.

Enjoy the half term holiday.

Best wishes,
Nicola Horton

Reminder: All pupils will return back to school on Monday 5th June.

EID CLASS PARTIES
Tuesday 27th June
Non-uniform Day

Please bring snacks/drinks to share

Well-done Year 1 and Year 5 for winning the lining up awards this half term. Both classes had a non-uniform day today, extra 10 minutes play time at break and even chose their own activity in the afternoon!

Come one, come all to see the amazing – no the outstanding – no the magnificent – the SPECTACULAR new pet in Nursery!!!

You would never guess what it is? They can live up to 25 years! They can move around upside down! They also have microscopic teeth! It is a gastropod molluscs or a snail. Speedy the snail is a vegetarian who enjoys spending the day munching on lettuce and carrots! Who wouldn't? We made him a habitat to make sure he has everything he needs! Let's just hope he doesn't escape to eat all our lovely plants!
