Love God, love yourself, love one another

Dear Parents and Carers,

Talking PANTS teaches children important messages, like their body belongs to them and they should tell an adult if they're upset or worried. In our PSHE lessons we have been teaching children how to be safe using the PANTS resources from the NSPCC website. PANTS stands for Privates are private, Always remember your body belongs to you, No means no, Talk about secrets that upset you, Speak up, someone can help. Attached is the child friendly version and here is the link for the parent version <https://www.nspcc.org.uk/globalassets/documents/advice-and-info/underwear-rule-guide-for-parents.pdf>. Please talk about PANTS with your child.

This term has gone quickly and the Christmas holidays are almost here. We look forward to seeing parents and carers at Parent Consultation meetings and at the Christmas Fair next week and at the Christmas service at church on 20th December.

Best wishes
Nicola Horton
