Dear Parents and Carers,

Welcome back to a new school term. Our theme in assemblies this week has been all about making SPSL a welcoming school. In today's assembly, some of our Year 6 pupils welcomed everyone in different languages. You can read the words for 'hello' in 9 different languages on this page. There are now attractive reading areas in the public areas of the school, as well as in the classrooms, all of which welcome children 'to dive into a book'. The message is that as well as being a welcoming school, we are a reading school too. Please ensure your child reads regularly at home. Reading is the gateway to success.

Welcome back to Ms Choudhury, who returns to school from maternity leave and is the Year 2 class teacher. Welcome to Ms Corsinie, who takes on the acting SENCO role now that Ms Taiwo has left.

I look forward to a successful term with the support of parents and carers.

Best wishes

Nicola Horton
