Dear Parents and Carers,

On Monday Mother Bernadette and other members of the church congregation, led an assembly in school about the new altar cloths. These are really beautiful, hand embroidered cloths to use in our collective worship and assemblies. They were made by the children, their parents and other members of the congregation at the Sunday school and are a present for our school. Each cloth symbolises a different part of the Christian year such as Christmas or Easter and other important times such as Harvest and Remembrance Day. There was a feeling of awe and wonder in the hall as each cloth was shown to the children and staff. We were completely amazed and delighted with the lovely present. Thank you very much St Paul's church at Bow Common for your hard work in making them; we shall enjoy the altar cloths. There will, I hope, be an article in East End Life about the altar cloths in the next edition.

Best wishes

Nicola Horton
