Love God, love yourself, love one another

Dear Parents and Carers,

The children look fantastic today in their national costumes or just dressed in non uniform clothes. The cultural afternoon is a favourite in our SPSL calendar so I hope lots of parents come to enjoy it and take part this afternoon. I hope parents are dressing up too.

I am pleased that children have tried hard to do their best in the spring term tests and assessments this week. The results from these help us to know how well your child is doing and what they need help with to make even better progress next term.

There was excitement at lunchtime today when we discovered that the frogs in the pond had grown enormously since last year and have laid lots of eggs!

Best wishes,
Nicola Horton

NURSERY MUDCHUTE FARM VISIT

Old MacDonald had a farm ee-i-ee-i-o! Nursery could not stop singing all about our fantastic trip to Mudchute Farm yesterday! We learned so much about all the animals on the farm and how they are taken care of! They had hens, sheep, goats, pigs and even cows! Did you know that we even got to feed the animals! We learned so many interesting facts about animals too! We all highly recommend a visit to Mudchute Farm! Thank you to all our parent volunteers!

The Highwayman

By the window Bess was sat
The highwayman came in a french cocked hat
He tried to reach her from his horse
He had to find a different course.
Her long black hair she did undo
And said "I'll pass this down to you"
Her hair it fell upon his shoulder.
He smelt her scent and ached to hold her.
I'll see you by the sun or moon
And hope this will be very soon.
He left Bess there and rode away.
What happened next I can not say.

Bess

Written by Taylor

She did not dare to make a sound.
