

NEWSLETTER W/E 24th October 2025

Dear Families,

A wonderful Autumnal half term with lots to celebrate!

Education cannot stand still, so we are looking at an AI kitemark taking the lead as a small group of schools in the London Diocese to work on this. We understand the ethical issues not just relating to intellectual property ownership but also to agency over images and text, the climate impact of using AI which is immense and also the lack of critical thinking and engagement that can happen when people are over reliant on this. We are looking for parents who may be confident and ones who may be AI cautious to join a Federation working party to see how AI can be implemented as is the Department of Education guidance in a way which enables human flourishing and meets our vision. If you would like to be part of this group, please email the office.

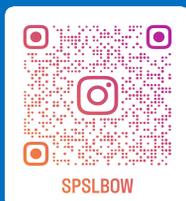

We wish you a wonderful half term,

Fanoula Smith,

*Mrs Smith
& Mr Hall*

SCHOOL NOTICE BOARD

Harvest festival

This week, we celebrated our Harvest Festival with a wonderful service led by Mother Bernadette. The church was filled with joy, music, and a true sense of community spirit. Our children did an amazing job reading from the Bible and singing the Harvest hymn, beautifully showcasing their talents and reminding us all of the importance of gratitude during this special season.

We are also pleased to share that all of the food collected will be distributed by St Dunstan's Food Bank. Your generous donations will make a real difference in the lives of those in need, and we are sincerely grateful for your continued support.

Thank you once again for your kindness and for being such an important part of our school community. Together, we continue to spread compassion, care, and hope.

Gardening

Our Key Stage 1 children had a fantastic time this week taking part in a hands-on gardening session with Alice our gardener. The children explored the different parts of a plant — from roots to leaves — and learned what a plant needs to grow strong and healthy.

They enjoyed getting their hands dirty while planting seeds and watering the garden beds, showing great curiosity and enthusiasm throughout the session.

This practical learning experience helped the children understand how to care for living things and the importance of looking after our environment.

Bread Making!

As part of their Design and Technology topic on Food and Nutrition, our Year 4 pupils took on the exciting challenge of making their own bread. The children thoroughly enjoyed the hands-on experience of mixing, kneading, and shaping their dough, learning about the key ingredients and the process that turns simple mixtures into delicious loaves.

Throughout the session, pupils demonstrated great teamwork, creativity, and curiosity as they explored how ingredients change during baking.

About Winter Illnesses and School Attendance

As we head into the colder months, it's common to see an increase in seasonal illnesses such as colds, coughs, and other respiratory infections. We understand that it can sometimes be difficult to decide whether your child should attend school when they are feeling unwell.

To help support your decision-making, please note the following guidance:

- Children with mild cold symptoms, such as a runny nose or a slight cough, can still attend school if they are otherwise well in themselves (eating, drinking, and alert).
- However, children should stay at home if they are experiencing more severe symptoms, such as:
 - A high temperature or fever
 - Vomiting or diarrhoea (children should remain at home for at least 48 hours after the last episode if it is norovirus)
 - Any illness that makes them too unwell to take part in normal school activities

We encourage good hygiene habits, such as regular hand washing and covering coughs and sneezes to help reduce the spread of germs. If your child is unwell and staying home, please remember to notify the school as soon as possible.

Thank you for helping us keep our school community healthy and safe during the winter season.

Institute of Education

Faculty of Education and Society

Final phase of our research on socioeconomic status & children's language and nonverbal abilities

Introducing the researcher

I'm Mahi, a PhD student at the Institute of Education at University College London, supervised by Professors Andy Tolmie and Michael Thomas. If you wish to view a short video introduction from me, please feel free to scan the QR code here.

To our participating families

Thank you once again for your valuable participation in the first wave of our research. I appreciate all the support you provided so far. This research will help us understand how children's experiences shape their learning and development. The findings will have important implications for education, helping to create better support and opportunities for all children to reach their full potential.

What does participation involve for my child?

- Approximately 35 minutes of the same cognitive (language and spatial) activities your child was engaged in at school last year.
 - Your child will participate in activities like matching words with pictures, recreating patterns with blocks, identifying missing pieces, and describing object similarities.

What do I need to do?

As you generously agreed last year to be contacted again for the final stage, I am now reaching out to kindly request your permission for your child to take part in this final phase of the research. You can provide your consent easily by scanning the QR code below or by using the link sent to you by headteachers.

If you have any questions, please email me @ mahitab.elgama1.23@ucl.ac.uk

If you wish to receive a personalized report for your child's performance please feel free to drop me an email 😊

Please scan this QR code to view all the information & provide your consent

When you click through to the end of the form, you'll see a thank-you message confirming your response 😊

ATTENDANCE MATTERS

WHAT DO YOUR ATTENDANCE FIGURES ACTUALLY MEAN?

BE SMART BE THERE!

Percentages based on 190 academic days

Polite reminder:

Children need to be in school on time.

Gates open at 8:45 and close at 8:55.

Early morning learning at this time sets the children up for the day.

Every day matters.
Every minute counts.

Attending primary school regularly provides a wealth of social, health and academic benefits for children.

"Going to school helps me achieve my very best."

For a 2020 - 2021 copy of the Primary School Attendance Booklet, please contact the school office.

Our Attendance Welfare Officer (AWA), Lina Rahman, attends school every Tuesday morning. Lina checks our school registers regularly and will contact parents & guardians by letter or telephone. Meetings and home visits will be completed if there is a cause for concern.

Formal referrals of pupils with persistent absence or below 90% attendance will be made. Children need to be in school every day. Parents should be aware that they can ultimately be prosecuted for non-attendance offences. Holidays should also be taken in school holidays and not in term time.

We know that sometimes- even with children at school 190 out of 365 days in the year- they may fall ill. This can be worrying so please see advice from our local teams on https://www.towerhamlets-together.com/files/Care_Confident_Booklet_A5_InteractiveBooklet2.pdf on common illnesses and when to seek support. Additional sports, including swimming, benefit children to be healthier and smarter. Please ensure children take full advantage of this by wearing appropriate kit and making sure they bring it with them each week!
